Veterans Branson Tour

"Honoring Those Who Served"

November 7 – 12 – 2013

Day 1 Thursday - Nov 7: Fly into Branson, Mo. After checking into our comfortable accommodations we will have dinner with entertainment at the Golden Corral. The evening will be spent at the show of the Texas Tenors. The Texas Tenors, an "indie country" trio were viewed by millions on the hit TV show Americas Got Talent, and now it's your chance to relive their classic performance. (dinner included)

THE TEXAS TENORS

Day 2 Friday - Nov 8: Today we will visit the Veterans Museum and Vietnam Memorial.

The museum is a national tribute to our veterans! Over 2000 exhibits in 10 great halls progressing through the wars of the 20th Century, including WWI, WWII, Korea, Vietnam and the Persian Gulf. Features the world's largest war memorial bronze sculpture with 50 life-size figures (each modeled after a combat soldier from each state).

A thought provoking and emotionally powerful experience for everyone!

This evening we will have dinner at the Fall Creek Steak & Catfish House in Branson, it is the original home of the "Tossed Roll." Since 1992, Fall Creek Steak & Catfish House has delighted locals and visitors alike with fast, friendly service, great steaks, catfish, burgers, and a large selection of sides as well as their famous fresh baked, melt-in-your-mouth rolls. As you enter the restaurant be alert for the hot rolls they toss you while you wait to be seated. After dinner it's the Shoji Tabuchi Show comprised of music and dance of virtually every style, including country, gospel, Cajun, big band, show tunes, fifties and classical with cultural experiences such as fantasy visits to Hawaii, Mardi Gras and Broadway. (breakfast and dinner included)

Day 3 Saturday – Nov 9: This morning we depart for the College of the Ozarks. We will tour the campus and visit some of the fascinating sights such as the Fruitcake and Jelly Kitchen, College of the Ozarks' greenhouses, and the Ralph Foster Museum (known locally as the "Smithsonian of the Ozarks") The Ralph Foster Museum's best known exhibit is a cut-down 1921 Oldsmobile Model 46 Roadster, the truck used in the original Beverly Hillsbillies TV series. "The museum also has one of the largest gun collections in the area. This evening we will attend the Clay Cooper's Country Express Dinner and Theatre. Clay Cooper and his cast of 20 veteran entertainers along with his 7 piece band, will light up the stage with singin', dancin', gun-slingin', rope-twirlin', percussion, and hysterical comedy. Hear some of the greatest country classics to today's famous artists. (breakfast and dinner included)

Day 4 Sunday - Nov 10: Departing early this morning we will join other Veterans at the Wal-Mart Tribute to Veterans and concert. The morning will be full of tributes and music dedicated to all veterans. Dinner this evening will be at the Bob Evans Restaurant. Bob Evans Restaurant is known for its deep commitment to great hospitality. The casual, family-friendly atmosphere includes a large collection of early American memorabilia reminiscent of life on the farm, farming industry, and small town life. Guests of Bob Evans in Branson will enjoy browsing the general store filled with something for everyone including Branson memorabilia, toys, crafts, art, and kitchen accessories.

This evening we will entertained at the Jim Stafford Show. From the opening moments of his zany show you're in for an action-packed adventure and some incredible guitar playing. Laser lights, a real 3-D Virtual Thrill Ride (created and developed in-house at Jim's theater) and more are just a few of the deliriously delightful surprises that await you at the Jim Stafford Theatre. (breakfast and dinner included)

Day 5 Monday - Nov 11: We will depart early this morning to prepare for the Veterans Parade. For the Veterans participating in the parade we have arranged for you to ride the Ducks (amphibious vehicles) down the parade route. We will have signs and decorations identifying our Utah Veterans. Branson's Annual Veterans Day Parade will march through Historic Downtown Branson on the "11th hour, of the eleventh day of the 11th month. This parade is a very patriotic and an emotional experience. We will spend shopping time in Old Town. This is a great time to pick up a few Christmas gifts. One of downtown Branson's biggest attractions is "Dick's old-time 5&10 kstore.

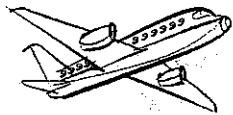

Dick's is a true old time 5 and dime that is reminiscent of a bygone era both in time of its interior construction and the selection and display of its merchandise.

This evening we'll enjoy a hearty, Christmas dinner, served straight off of a vintage 1800's chuck wagon. You'll "Cowboy Up" to a big, hot, rib-stickin' bowl of 3-bean Trail chili, a big ladle of Cookie's Sparklin' dutch-oven Taters, an oven roasted chicken breast quarter, a whole flame-roasted ear of corn, a Texas-size slab of cornbread with honey butter, and a big bowl of fresh-made dutch-oven apple cobbler made right over the campfire. As we celebrate Christmas on the Trail, you'll sing along, as we share a Cowboy Christmas, complete with your favorite Christmas Carols, and a special time of reflection on the true meaning of the Christmas Season! Join us around the campfire, as we create a Christmas memory complete with familiar carols, and unique cowboy reflections that will touch your heart and stir your memories! (breakfast and dinner included)

Day 6 Tuesday - Nov 12

Relax this morning. We will depart for the airport around noon for our flight home arriving early evening (breakfast included)
